

Look At the Face of Poverty & Make Eye Contact.

You'll see a person, not just a statistic.

At Action for a Better Community, our programs respect a person's dignity while teaching skills that foster intelligence and independence.

Who Are They?

They're mothers, fathers, children & neighbors.

At Action for a Better Community, we help people by providing programs to build life skills, and foster self-reliance.

*Helping people to become better
parents, providers & citizens.*

At Action for a Better Community, we help
pull people out of poverty
by giving them the skills
to hold a job, raise their kids.

Picture Yourself In Need.

*And ask yourself what kind of help
you'd want.*

You would want the kind of help that respects your dignity and prepares you to make it on your own--
the kind Action for a Better Community gives everyday.
