welcomes the

Ryder Cup Matches

A contemporary interpretation of traditional Italian dining, Tony Grana's offers 40 years of restaurant experience in their new location. Daily specials showcase enticing dishes such as Chicken William with asparagus and mushrooms in a Marsala wine sauce. Menu favorites include Chippino, a "seafood stew" chock full of lobster, shrimp, clams, calamari and mussels in a dry vermouth and tomato sauce. "Heart smart" selections, prepared without butter or oil, feature greens and beans, a big seller that combines cannelloni and escarole over penne pasta. But if you're in the mood for something richer, try their famous Grana casserole with baked penne, meatball, sausage, peppers, mushrooms and mozzarella cheese.

Tony Grana's is open Tuesdays through Thursdays 5:00 to 10:00, Fridays and Saturdays from 5:00 to 11:00, and Sundays from 5:00 to 9:00. They're closed Mondays and reservations are recommended on the weekend.

A forest green marble bar, clean lines of cherry taffy chairs, and intimate dining rooms reflect the undiluted elegance another era, when George Eastman and Henry Ford frequented the former men's club. Since it opened its doors in 1988, the Rochester Club has garnered numerous deserved stars from the Democrat and Chronicle, fresh seafood flown in from Louisiana, daily specials such as crabcakes and blackened shark with crawfish, and crowd pleasers.

Diners can also select from a global array of choices on the regular menu, starting with tapas, Spanish style appetizers, Rack lamb chops Indienne and spicy Mediterranean seafood pasta are among the favorite entrees. The Rochester Club features live jazz on Friday and Saturday nights. It is open for dinner Monday through Saturday; and for lunch Monday through Friday. Reservations are recommended.
